

Unpaid Internships with Growing Hope MARKET GARDENING INTERNSHIP

About Growing Hope:

Growing Hope is a 15-year-old non-profit organization in Ypsilanti, Michigan dedicated to helping people improve their lives and communities through gardening and increasing access to healthy food. Our commitment to increased access to healthy foods is demonstrated through our Growing Hope Center urban demonstration gardens and production farm. We operate a 1.4 acre urban farm near downtown Ypsilanti. The farm is a multi-purpose space used for organic practice production and acts as an educational space for youth, volunteers and community members.

Areas of interest:

Food Security, Organic Farming, Backyard Gardening

Positions Description:

This experience will provide interns with a fundamental understanding of garden and plant care, Growing Hope's garden and farm programs as well as the larger food system. Interns will learn about sustainable production of the various production styles at the Growing Hope urban farm including backyards garden and market garden. Additionally, interns will learn about the broader context of the food system, such as local and national policy, historical and systematic racism and the solutions and inspiring work to create a better food system.

The intern will meet with our Farm and Garden Manager at the beginning of their internship to set down specific learning goals and evaluation points. Internships will be partially tailored around everyone's individual interests and capacity. Interns must be able to commit to showing up reliably regardless of the weather. As Growing Hope runs many concurrent programs on a tight schedule, it is very important for interns to show up on time and stay for the duration of their shift.

This internship focuses on the day to day essential tasks including:

- Marketing gardening
- Efficient and safe harvest and post-harvest handling
- Produce storage
- Food safety
- Managing weed pressure
- Producing the most produce in a small-scale urban farm

Qualifications

- Looking to learn new skills and are willing to make mistakes
- Must be able to lift 40 lbs.
- Sustain a fast pace of work for multiple hours

- Love being outside and are not afraid of the rain or cold or heat
- Have reliable transportation
- Know themselves and how they learn best
- Can work independently
- Can clean up after themselves and maintain an organized clean workspace
- Have a passion for food justice and want to learn more!

Unpaid Availability: Ability to work Wednesdays 9am-3pm, Friday 9am- 2pm

Spring: May 2, 2018 for a minimum of 10 hours/week, for at least 12 weeks.

Summer: July 9, 2018 for a minimum of 10 hours/week, for at least 12 weeks.

We understand that some people may have an interest in the position, but may not be able to make all of the above hours. We are happy to talk through scheduling with candidates, and see if the position can work.

If intern would like to add more hours to their internship they may also choose another area of interest to work on, such as:

- Farm Hacks & Construction
- Rain gardens
- Pollinator gardening
- Composting
- Edible Landscaping
- Rainwater collection
- Record Keeping
