

Unpaid Internship with Growing Hope NUTRITION EDUCATOR

About Growing Hope:

Growing Hope is a grassroots non-profit organization in Ypsilanti, Michigan dedicated to empowering individuals, groups and communities through gardening and increasing access to healthy food. We aim to use good food as a vehicle to Grow Healthy People, Grow Healthy Places, and Grow Healthy Economies.

Growing Hope's commitment to providing improved lives and communities through greater access to healthy foods is demonstrated through our Farmers Markets area of work. This includes running two Ypsilanti Farmers Market locations, operating an Ypsilanti Mobile Farm Stand, providing training and by providing consulting in the farmers market sector. We aim to help people, particularly those with barriers to healthy food, gain self-reliance growing their own food, while gaining the skills and knowledge needed to achieve their desired level of health. Food education at our farmers markets is one of the ways we do that.

Position Description:

Growing Hope is seeking a Nutrition Educator Intern to assist with the nutrition education booth also known as the "Veggucation Station" at our Ypsilanti Farmers Markets (YFM) on Tuesdays downtown at the Ypsilanti Farmers MarketPlace. We also manage the Ypsilanti Farmers Market on Saturdays in Depot Town. The YFM plays a crucial part in Growing Hope's nutrition education through food sampling and cooking demonstrations. This includes preparing healthy recipe samples and cooking demonstrations.

Intern will work approximately 15 hours per week total, and must be available to work Monday afternoons and Tuesdays from 1 p.m. to 7 p.m as well as meet once/weekly with the Growing Hope Farmers Market and Nutrition Manager for planning purposes. Intern must have a car and be willing to use it to transport some materials to and from market.

Tasks include:

- Prepare seasonal produce, recipes and handouts for food sampling at the YFM.
- Prepare and lead cooking demonstrations focused on affordable, seasonal produce at the Tuesday YFM.
- Be a point of contact for two of Growing Hope's teen interns while sampling food at the Tuesday's YFM.
- Assist in data entry.

Qualified candidates will exhibit the following:

- Formal schooling in and/or extensive personal knowledge of nutrition concepts
- Familiarity with USDA dietary guidelines; understanding of concept of evidence-based curricula
- Passion for and experience with healthy, vegetable-centric cooking—knowledge of gardening a plus
- Basic food prep and handling skills, and the ability to follow a simple recipe accurately
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills; Approachable, outgoing, and professional personality
- Training in food safety (ServSafe certification preferred but not required) and ability to implement such standards to run a clean, safe sampling station
- Interest in food justice and food systems, and a belief that all people deserve access to healthy food
- Experience interacting with people from all walks of life; Comfortable working alongside high-school aged youth; Ability to work independently
- Great multitasking skills
- Willingness and desire to learn from and coordinate with the Farmers Market and Nutrition Programs Manager
- Some event planning, organizing, or tabling experience preferred
- Able to lift at least 40 lbs. and comfortable with doing some manual labor; Comfortable with working outdoors, sometimes in very hot, cold or rainy weather

Unpaid Availability:

Summer Term- April 15, 2017- August 31, 2017. Depending on school calendars June 1 start date is possible to be considered. Intern applicants who can serve for the Fall Term will be given priority.
